Memorandum. 11 Park Road

Halifax, 17th Aug. 1911.

Ugy dem Herrn mit Gruß. Budapest.

I have duly received your kind letter of 31st ult. June which I received a few days after my return home from Buenos Ayres. –

So by your letter that you are now at present in the Mountains, Hard at work, away from all business cares and can live a happy life there with Mother Nature, where one never gets tired of. I am glad that you feel are alright again and girl is no more pain, which is a great relief for all that you can walk and run about and even dance, if it were necessary. Anyhow you will now prepare yourself with sufficient Kreuzer to make most of your this wonderful trip to the East round the world, as you farewell visit, as you call it. – I presume you will then on your return via the United States come to old England and come and see us in Halifax, both my wife and I will be very pleased to have you as our own guest and we shall make it most comfortable for you. You will then have the proper occasion to make a new friend in our little town who is most friendly towards and so interested in all. He will make a great friend of you! We have not informed him of the exalted title which he has got in Budapest "the prince of Halifax". He might become conceited and as his banking office is very motors £10 in the Dominion Iron Bank, and his father has had to stick to business all his life, it is not likely that the dignity of such an inheritant title as the "Prince of Halifax" could be kept up in future. But I
