

Baluster vase with geishas in a garden design

Japanese Collection

|                       |                                                                                        |
|-----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:        | 3971  |
| Type:                 | vase; object for daily use; ceramics                                                   |
| Artist/Maker:         | Sobei Kinkozan VII                                                                     |
| Date of production:   | between 1910 and 1926Meiji era or Taishō era                                       |
| Place of production:  | Japan                                                                                  |
| Signed:               | Kinkozan                                                                               |
| Materials/Techniques: | earthenware, multicolour overglaze painting                                            |
| Dimensions:           | height: 20.8 cm                                                                        |
| Acquisition:          | collection of Ferenc Hopp                                                              |

