

Bowl with man, deer and bird on the inside, various types of ornaments on the outside

Japanese Collection

|                       |                                                                                           |
|-----------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:        | 54.96.1  |
| Type:                 | ceramics                                                                                  |
| Artist/Maker:         | Risaburo Nakagawa                                                                         |
| Date of production:   | Mid to late 19th centuryEdo (Tokugawa) period or Meiji era                            |
| Place of production:  | Kaseyama, Japan                                                                           |
| Signed:               | sensei yūken / 専製有権 (specialty ware, all rights reserved)                                 |
| Materials/Techniques: | porcelain, sometsuke, copperplate printing (inbante)                                      |
| Dimensions:           | height: 11.2diameter: 24 cm                                                           |

The maker established the transfer printing technique in Japan in 1847.

References:

橋本忠之 [Hashimoto Tadayuki], 『近代のいんばん手 : その意匠と時代背景』 [Modern Inbante: its design and historical background] Toyonaka, 天空舎, 2006, 197, 198.

<https://artouch.com/art-views/content-78781.html>

<https://sites.google.com/site/bandwresearch/home/imbande/roots/kaseyama>

<https://blog.goo.ne.jp/chishima-archive/e/3ba98ff261ed3e1020ee843b29f6329d>

