

Tile with the sitting figure of Amitabha, from the side wall of a stupa

Chinese Collection

Accession Nr.:	56.13.1
Type:	relief; architectural fragment; pottery
Date of production:	18th century Qing dynasty
Place of production:	China
Materials:	stoneware
Techniques:	glazed; relief
Dimensions:	height: 26.5 cm width: 12.5 cm

The tile is coated with turquoise blue glaze and depicts the figure of Buddha Amitabha sitting on an unglazed double lotus throne. His hands are resting on his lap; he is holding a vessel (Sanskrit patra). His aubergine glazed gown is covering both of his shoulders.

