

Jar-shaped pot

India / South Asia Collection

Accession Nr.:	56.54.1
Type:	ceramics
Date of production:	19-th c.
Place of production:	India
Materials:	terracotta
Techniques:	engraved
Dimensions:	height: 4.5 cm diameter: 12.8 cm

A small jar-shaped earthenware pot with a brown glaze. It originally had ears on one side, it must have been a brandy cup. On its outer surface you can see a drawn plant ornament. Material: red terracotta.

