

Shiva and Indra mounted on elephants

India / South Asia Collection

Accession Nr.: 58.358.1

Type: vessel; ceramics

Date of production: second half of 19th c.

Place of production: India

Materials: clay

Techniques: fired; glazed; painted

Dimensions: height: 6.3 cm diameter: 60.5 cm

Glazed hard terracotta decorative plate with burnt paint. Wide all-round border decoration. In the central circle, two divine couples face each other: on the left Indra and Indrani mounted on an elephant, on the right Shiva and Parvati mounted on a bull. On the outer ornamental belt, four smaller circles are placed opposite to each other, showing sitting couples.

Inscription on the back: Shri, and other illegible marks, probably abbreviations. The plate might come from the state of Gujarat.

Related to HFM\_58.357.1 .

