

Standing child with a lotus

Chinese Collection

Accession Nr.: 64.68.1

Type: sculpture; pottery

Date of production: Early 18th century
Qing dynasty

Place of production: China

Materials: porcelain

Techniques: overglaze decoration

Dimensions: height: 25.9 cm diameter (base): 7 cm

The child figure stands on a rectangular pedestal decorated with a lotus flower. He holds a vase with a leafy lotus bud to his breast. He was made in a pair, usually with his twinbrother.

