

Jōmon style pottery fragment (archeological)

Japanese Collection

Accession Nr.:	9618.2
Type:	archaeological artifacts
Date of production:	10500 BC – 300 BC Jōmon period
Place of production:	Itoigawa, Niigata prefecture, Japan
Materials/Techniques:	earthenware
Dimensions:	width: 4.5 cm length: 6 cm

Found by Sōma Gyōfu poet (1917), who gave it to the poet and potter Uchishima Hokuro, who gifted it to Dr Tibor Horváth in 1942.

