

Snuff bottle

Mongolian Collection

|                      |                                                                                            |
|----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | 66.3.1-2  |
| Type:                | object for daily use; snuff bottle                                                         |
| Date of production:  | 19th and 20th centuries                                                                    |
| Place of production: | Mongolia                                                                                   |
| Materials:           | nephrite                                                                                   |
| Dimensions:          | height: 6.3 cmwidth: 5.6 cm                                                            |

A snuff bottle (Khalkha: xᠠᠷᠣᠭ) carved from brownish, brown-spotted translucent nephrite, with a carved pattern on both sides. Its cap is a hemisphere made of red stone, and its spoon is made of metal.

