Accession Nr.:	9250
Type:	archaeological artifacts
Date of production:	19th century
Materials/Techniques:	wood
Dimensions:	height: 8.5 cm width: 12.2 cm length a with handles együtt: 15.4 cm

A pear-shaped light brown wooden bowl with straight rim and flat bottom. It has a handle in a shape of a very stylized animal which has a broken head.

Possibly it was inspired by a ceramic vessel similarly to the 9249 from Kuban.
