

Three-case inrō with embossed flower motif, ojime on cord, and ivory netsuke depicting two figures

Japanese Collection

Accession Nr.:	3251.1-5
Type:	bone objects; object for daily use; lacquers; inrō; netsuke; accessory
Date of production:	late 18th – early 19th century Edo (Tokugawa) period
Place of production:	Japan
Materials:	ivory; maki-e; wood
Dimensions:	netsuke: height: 4.2 cm width: 2.4 cm depth: 2.5 cm ojime: height: 2.5 cm diameter: 2.5 cm inrō: height: 5.4 cm width: 5.4 cm depth: 2.4 cm
Acquisition:	collection of Ferenc Hopp

Two-case inrō, in the form of a leather tobacco case, with an ivory netsuke depicting two figures and with a maki-e ojime.

Maki-e.

