

Inrō with scallops and wheelks

Japanese Collection

|                           |                                                                                            |
|---------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:            | 3649.1-3  |
| Type:                     | object for daily use; lacquers; statuette                                                  |
| Date of production:       | second half of the 19th centuryMeiji era                                               |
| Place of production:      | Japan                                                                                      |
| Materials/Techniques: | lacquer (maki-e) on wood                                                                   |
| Dimensions:               | height: 6.3 cmwidth: 7.2 cm                                                            |
| Acquisition:              | collected by Péter Vay                                                                     |

