

Standing Amida – Lord of The Western Paradise

Japanese Collection

Accession Nr.: 5608.1-2

Type: wooden sculpture

Date of production: 17th century
Edo (Tokugawa) period

Place of production: Japan

Materials/Technique s: lacquered and gilded wood

Dimensions: height: 58 cm width: 17 cm
depth: 16 cm

Acquisition: collected by Péter Vay

The figure of the Amida Buddha stands on a double lotus base. His body is covered in a robe that falls in even folds over his arms, below his waist, and over his legs. He holds his right arm at chest height, while his left arm hangs at his side.

