

Snuff bottle decorated with figures

Chinese Collection

Accession Nr.:	3732.1-2
Type:	object for daily use; snuff bottle; pottery
Date of production:	19th century Qing dynasty
Place of production:	Jiangxi province, China
Materials:	ivory; porcelain
Techniques:	underglaze blue and red
Dimensions:	height: 9.1 cm diameter (base): 2.2 cm
Acquisition:	collection of Ferenc Hopp

The body of the bottle is tall and cylindrical, and has a slightly narrowing base, a short, narrow neck and a thick mouth rim. On the neck, there are leiwen motifs on a netlike surface.

