

Ding-shaped (reminiscent of an ancient bronze ceremonial vessel) covered incense burner, with dragon decoration on the side and a wooden base

Chinese Collection

|                      |                                                                                                                                         |
|----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | 3763.1-2-3                                             |
| Type:                | object for daily use; jade                                                                                                              |
| Date of production:  | 19th centuryQing dynasty                                                                                                            |
| Place of production: | China                                                                                                                                   |
| Materials:           | jadeite; wood                                                                                                                           |
| Techniques:          | carved; engraved                                                                                                                        |
| Dimensions:          | height: 19.5 cm, with base: 24.5 cmwidth: 16 cmlength: 22.4 cmbase:height: 6 cmwidth: 18.8 cmdepth: 12.7 cm |
| Acquisition:         | collection of Ferenc Hopp                                                                                                               |

