

Mask used as currency

Chinese Collection

|                      |                                                                                        |
|----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | 4035  |
| Type:                | money and coins; metalwork                                                             |
| Date of production:  | 4th–3rd centuries BCEaster Zhou dynasty                                            |
| Place of production: | China                                                                                  |
| Materials:           | bronze                                                                                 |
| Dimensions:          | height: 4 cmwidth: 3 cm                                                            |
| Acquisition:         | bequest of Zoltán Felvinczi Takács                                                     |

Oval face with two wide cheekbones. It features a low brow, elongated eyes, a wide, flat nose, and an open mouth. Traces of wear can be seen on the surface of the nose and cheeks.

