

Snuff bottle with the figures of warriors

Chinese Collection

Accession Nr.:	426
Type:	object for daily use; snuff bottle; pottery
Date of production:	1820-1860 Qing dynasty
Place of production:	Jiangxi province, China
Marks:	four-character ironred Qianlong mark
Materials:	porcelain
Techniques:	applied; glazed; overglaze decoration
Dimensions:	height: 7 cm diameter (base): 1.2 cm

This is flat, round-bodied snuff bottle that takes its shape from a bottle vase. The body rests on a low oval base. The neck is short and wide; the knob and the spoon are missing.

