

Sword (talwar) with sheath

India / South Asia Collection

|                      |                                                                                              |
|----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | 51.819.1-2  |
| Type:                | weapons and armament                                                                         |
| Date of production:  | 18th-19th c.Mughal period                                                                |
| Place of production: | India                                                                                        |
| Materials:           | copper; silver; steel; velvet; wood                                                          |
| Dimensions:          | height: 78cmwidth: 9.6 cm                                                                |

Broken steel blade with silver inlay. The sheath is made of wood, covered with velvet and brass decoration.

