

Container

Southeast Asian Collection

Accession Nr.:	54.141.1
Type:	object for daily use
Date of production:	19th century
Place of production:	Sumatra, Indonesia, Southeast Asia
Materials/Techniques:	bamboo, etched, painted
Dimensions:	diameter: 4.3 cm length: 10.4 cm

Uncovered bamboo container: also used for storing the lime used to make betel, medicines, documents, etc. The side is divided into cells, filled with a repeating motif.

