

Snuff bottle with purple or violet-coloured flambé glaze

Chinese Collection

|                      |   |
|----------------------|---|
| Accession Nr.:       | 63.25.1-2  |
| Type:                | object for daily use; snuff bottle; pottery   |
| Date of production:  | 1st half of the 19th centuryQing dynasty  |
| Place of production: | Jiangxi province, China   |
| Materials:           | porcelain   |
| Techniques:          | glazed  |
| Dimensions:          | height: 8.8 cmdiameter (base): 2.9 cm   |

The tall, cylindrical body of this snuff bottle rests on a wide, low base. The piece was most probably made in the first half of the 19th century.

