

Coin

India / South Asia Collection

|                      |                                                                                          |
|----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | 76.1.1  |
| Type:                | object for daily use                                                                     |
| Date of production:  | 4th-5th c.Kushan period                                                              |
| Place of production: | India                                                                                    |
| Materials:           | bronze                                                                                   |
| Dimensions:          | height: 0.4 cmdiameter: 2.1 cm                                                       |

A standing figure of a Gupta emperor on the obverse, a female figure holding a flower on the reverse.

