

Ewer

Middle Eastern Collection

|                       |                                                                                           |
|-----------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:        | 62.21.1  |
| Type:                 | vessel                                                                                    |
| Date of production:   | 19th century                                                                              |
| Place of production:  | India or greater Iran                                                                     |
| Materials/Techniques: | brass, engraved                                                                           |
| Dimensions:           | height: 17.5 cmdiameter(talp): 11.5 cm                                                |

Bulbous vessel resting on an elevated base with flower decoration.

