

Cutlery set

Middle Eastern Collection

|                       |                                                                                            |
|-----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:        | 64.7.1-3  |
| Type:                 | object for daily use                                                                       |
| Date of production:   | 1879 A.D.                                                                                  |
| Place of production:  | Turkey or Persia                                                                           |
| Materials/Techniques: | steel, bone, brass                                                                         |
| Dimensions:           | length: 46 cmwidth: 3.5 és 2.5 cm                                                      |

Engraved decoration on the blade of the knife and the flared part of the fork. The handle of the cutlery is decorated with copper nails and red stones. The blade has an inscription in Arabic letters and the year 'amel Hussein Aga, h.1296 (=1879 A.D.)

