

Fudo Myō-ō

Japanese Collection

|                       |  |
|-----------------------|--|
| Accession Nr.:        | 3182  |
| Type:                 | painting; hanging scroll   |
| Date of production:   | 19th centuryMeiji era  |
| Place of production:  | Japan  |
| Materials/Techniques: | colours on paper   |
| Dimensions:           | height: 47 cmwidth: 14.7 cmmirror: 20.5 × 9.8 cm                               |
| Acquisition:          | collected by Péter Vay   |

The deity Fudo Myō-ō (不動明王) is shown sitting on a rock in the closed lotus position. His lower body is covered with a white and gold patterned cloth. There is a red patterned stole across his chest, draped over his left shoulder. He wears bands on his arms and jewellery on his chest, with an open lotus on his head.

