

Mughal carpet fragment

India / South Asia Collection

|                      |                                                                                            |
|----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | 50.140.1  |
| Type:                | textile; carpet                                                                            |
| Date of production:  | 17th-18th c.Mughal period                                                              |
| Place of production: | India                                                                                      |
| Materials:           | wool                                                                                       |
| Techniques:          | hand knotted                                                                               |
| Dimensions:          | height: 24cmwidth: 80 cm                                                               |
| Acquisition:         | donation of Imre Schwaiger                                                                 |

Fragment of a hand-knotted Mughal carpet made of wool.

