

Daizuigu-Dhārani

Japanese Collection

Accession Nr.: 5614

Type: painting

Date of production: 17th–18th centuries
Edo (Tokugawa) period

Place of production: Japan

Materials/Technique s: colours and gold on silk

Dimensions: height: 42.7 cm width: 40.8 cm

Acquisition: collected by Péter Vay

The bodhisattva Daizuigu (大隨求菩薩) is shown in the centre of the painting within the disk of the full moon, surrounded by powerful incantations (Sanskrit: dhārani). The deity is depicted sitting in the vajra posture in the centre of the picture, wearing a red skirt with gold patterning. Her upper body is decorated with bodhisattva jewellery.

