

Scroll painting

Southeast Asian Collection

Accession Nr.: 59.91.1

Type: painting; hanging scroll

Date of production: 1950s

Place of production: Vietnam, Southeast Asia

Materials/Technique: paper, ink, colours, mounted on paper s:

Dimensions: height: 146 cm width: 45.5 cm

Colourful scroll from the four precious fruits series. In the lower part of the image, a vulture holds a bluebird in its talons, while its victim's mate flies overhead, watching them frantically. Below them is a rose bush, and above a tree laden with red fruits (presumably lychee (Litchi chinensis)).

