

Belt

Southeast Asian Collection

|                       |                                                                                            |
|-----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:        | 62.386.1  |
| Type:                 | costumes; textile arts                                                                     |
| Date of production:   | 19 – 20th century                                                                          |
| Place of production:  | archipelago, Southeast Asia                                                                |
| Materials/Techniques: | wool, cotton thread, glass beads                                                           |
| Dimensions:           | width: 0.7 cmlength: 236 cm                                                            |

Beaded braid woven with red, orange and black yarn. Both ends with black, white and red beaded fringes.

