

Hmong belt

Southeast Asian Collection

Accession Nr.:	64.50.1
Type:	textile; costumes; textile arts
Date of production:	early 1960s
Place of production:	Vietnam, Southeast Asia
Materials/Techniques:	textile, embroidered, indigo-dyed
Dimensions:	width: 22.5 length: 214 cm

Hmong belt made of dark canvas with white, yellow, purple, green woven pattern on both ends, with two pink embroidered overlays. The embroidery is framed by a red border with green and white cross-stitch embroidery, and the end of the belt is finished with a tassel. Gift of the Institute of Cultural Relations, 1964.

