

Tapis (skirt)

Southeast Asian Collection

|                       |                                                                                          |
|-----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:        | 77.8.1  |
| Type:                 | textile; costumes; textile arts                                                          |
| Date of production:   | 19th century                                                                             |
| Place of production:  | Sumatra, Lampung, Indonesia, Southeast Asia                                              |
| Materials/Techniques: | cotton cloth, coloured mirror glass, woven, embroidered                                  |
| Dimensions:           | height: 112 cmwidth: 107 cm                                                          |

Colourful striped woven textile skirt with a striking design, embroidered floral and ornamental motifs, coloured glass (mica) and sequin decoration.

