

Tent lining (Qanat)

India / South Asia Collection

|                      |                                                                                           |
|----------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | 96.13.1  |
| Type:                | textile                                                                                   |
| Date of production:  | first half of 18th c.Mughal period                                                    |
| Place of production: | India                                                                                     |
| Materials:           | velvet                                                                                    |
| Techniques:          | hand knotted; painted                                                                     |
| Dimensions:          | height: 205 cmwidth: 143 cm                                                           |

Red velvet mirror, on a blue velvet base with a gold-painted fruit-floral frame. The red velvet is sewn together from several pieces and is very worn. Mounted on wood.

