

Yokohama Reconstructed (series title)

Japanese Collection

|                      |                                                                                            |
|----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | 2018.4.2  |
| Type:                | painting                                                                                   |
| Artist/Maker:        | George Komor                                                                               |
| Date of production:  | 1926Shōwa era                                                                          |
| Place of production: | Yokohama, Japan                                                                            |
| Signed:              | T. K. 1926                                                                                 |
| Dimensions:          | height: 34.5 cmwidth: 51 cm                                                            |

Part of a series of 33 watercolour paintings depicting the reconstruction of Yokohama after the Great Kant ō Earthquake of 1923.

