

Yokohama Reconstructed (series title)

Japanese Collection

|                       |                                                                                             |
|-----------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:        | 2018.4.13  |
| Type:                 | painting                                                                                    |
| Artist/Maker:         | George Komor                                                                                |
| Date of production:   | 1926Shōwa era                                                                           |
| Place of production:  | Yokohama, Japan                                                                             |
| Signed:               | K. 1926Yokohama                                                                         |
| Materials/Techniques: | japanese paper, watercolour                                                                 |
| Dimensions:           | height: 34.5 cmwidth: 51 cm                                                             |

Part of a series of 33 watercolour paintings depicting the reconstruction of Yokohama after the Great Kantō Earthquake of 1923.

