

Ruins of palace from Seljuk Era, Konia (Konya), between 1905 and 1910

Archive

|                      |                                                                                                |
|----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | F.2001.13.2.  |
| Type:                | photograph                                                                                     |
| Date of production:  | between 1905 and 1910                                                                          |
| Place of production: | Konya, Türkiye (Turkey)                                                                        |
| Techniques:          | complete with handwriting; gelatin silver; photo enlargement                                   |
| Dimensions:          | height: 16.8 cmwidth: 11.7 cm                                                              |

in front: handwriting: Konia, Seljuk palace ruins in the photo with handwriting: 1559/40 Arabic script related item: HFA_F.2001.13.1.

