

Hakusan Maru, 1936

Archive

|                      |                                                                                                |
|----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | F.2004.1068.  |
| Type:                | photograph                                                                                     |
| Artist/Maker:        | Zoltán Felvinczi Takáts (made by)                                                              |
| Date of production:  | 1936                                                                                           |
| Place of production: | Japan                                                                                          |
| Techniques:          | complete with handwriting; contact sheet; gelatin silver                                       |
| Dimensions:          | height: 5.7 cmwidth: 8.7 cm                                                                |
| Acquisition:         | bequest of Zoltán Felvinczi Takács                                                             |

kapcsolódó tételek: HFA_ F.2004.1045–1881.

