

Near Keishu (Keishōhoku-dō), Korea, 1936

Archive

|                      |                                                                                                |
|----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | F.2004.1087.  |
| Type:                | photograph                                                                                     |
| Artist/Maker:        | Zoltán Felvinczi Takáts (made by)                                                              |
| Date of production:  | 1936                                                                                           |
| Place of production: | Korea                                                                                          |
| Techniques:          | contact sheet; gelatin silver                                                                  |
| Dimensions:          | height: 8.8 cmwidth: 5.8 cm                                                                |
| Acquisition:         | bequest of Zoltán Felvinczi Takács                                                             |

related items: HFA_ F.2004.1045–1881. North Gyeongsang Province (경상북도), between 1910 and 1945
Keishōhoku-dō (慶尙北道; 경상북도)

