

The pagoda of Kuo-hsiang-se Monastery above the rooftops, Kaifeng

Archive

|                      |                                                                                                |
|----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | F.2004.1588.  |
| Type:                | photograph                                                                                     |
| Artist/Maker:        | Zoltán Felvinczi Takáts (made by)                                                              |
| Date of production:  | 1936.                                                                                          |
| Place of production: | China (Peoples Republic of China)                                                              |
| Techniques:          | gelatin silver                                                                                 |
| Dimensions:          | height: 6 cmwidth: 9 cm                                                                    |
| Acquisition:         | bequest of Zoltán Felvinczi Takács                                                             |

