

Otera Kyoto III.

Archive

|                      |                                                                                                |
|----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | F.2017.13.1.  |
| Type:                | photograph                                                                                     |
| Date of production:  | 2013                                                                                           |
| Place of production: | Kyoto, Japan                                                                                   |
| Materials:           | paper                                                                                          |
| Techniques:          | digital copy; framed                                                                           |
| Dimensions:          | height: 40 cmwidth: 40 cm                                                                  |

In a shrine garden bordered by a picket fence, there are small Jizō statues dressed in shawls, stone lanterns, a spring fountain, with a larger, standing Jizō statue in the middle.

