

Drum chair with a hexagonal cover and mask-shaped handle holes

Chinese Collection

Accession Nr.:	511
Type:	furniture; pottery
Date of production:	19th century Qing dynasty
Place of production:	China
Materials:	earthenware
Techniques:	glazed
Dimensions:	height: 40 cm fedlap diameterje: 24.7 cm × 29 cm width: 35 cm
Acquisition:	collection of Ferenc Hopp

This is a hexagonal-bodied piece of furniture with a hexagonal cover. Drum chairs are characteristic Chinese pieces of furniture. As a rule, drum chairs were used during informal gatherings or by family members of a lower rank.

