

Table screen with a porcelain panel

Chinese Collection

Accession Nr.:	214.1-2
Type:	furniture; screen; pottery
Date of production:	18th century Qing dynasty
Place of production:	Jiangxi province, China
Marks:	Sic character Chenghua (1465-1487) mark in double cobalt ring, but the pocelain tile was made during Kangxi reign.
Materials:	jadeite; porcelain; rosewood; teak
Techniques:	underglaze blue
Dimensions:	height: 59 cm width: 34 cm depth: 20 cm
Acquisition:	collection of Ferenc Hopp

A table screen with a round panel and a heavily decorated tall pedestal. The panel – which originally was a plate – is decorated with a bird-and-flower image.

