Dezső Bozóky hand-coloured glass diapositive. Photograph taken by Dezső Bozóky. "On the corner of the fish market, and in the port, where there are lots of working men, women sell hot meals under parasols stuck in the ground. There is the odd Korean confectioner, who squats before a vast baking tin, in which there is a brownish, elastic pie, which she cuts up with a large pair of tailor's scissors, clacking it all the while to advertise the delicacy" (Bozóky 1911, I. 495).
