

The palace of the Japanese Resident in Seoul

Archive

|                       |                                                                                                  |
|-----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:        | A.4760.2.25.3.  |
| Type:                 | photograph                                                                                       |
| Artist/Maker:         | Dezső Bozóky (photo made by)                                                                     |
| Date of production:   | 1908                                                                                             |
| Place of production:  | Seoul, Korea                                                                                     |
| Signed:               | Below the photo: Dezső Bozóky's handwriting:The palace of the Japanese resident in Seoul.    |
| Materials/Techniques: | gelatin silver print                                                                             |
| Dimensions:           | height: 9.5 cmwidth: 13 cm                                                                   |
| Acquisition:          | collection of Dezső Bozóky                                                                       |

The album containing Dezső Bozóky's travelphotos (second). Related item: A.4760.2. (album). Photograph taken by Dezső Bozóky. A building complex surrounded by wooden railing, with a long, multi-storey wooden structure in the centre. "The road ran, along the Catholic church, steeply upwards, right up to the resident's palace, where Korea's uncrowned emperor, Prince Ito manages the affairs of the country" (Bozóky 1911, I. 510–511). Other publication: Bozóky Dezső: Két év Keletáziában. Útirajzok. I-II. kötet. China és Korea, Japán. (동아시아에서의 2년. 여행기 I.-II. 권, 중국과 한국, 일본) Nagyvárad, the author's edition, 1911.

