

Dípalaksmí oil lantern

India / South Asia Collection

Accession Nr.:	3068
Type:	bronze, lead, gold and silver; object for daily use
Date of production:	18th c.
Place of production:	India
Materials:	bronze
Techniques:	cast
Dimensions:	height: 45 cm width: 10.5 cm depth: 10.5 cm tömeg: 3.3 kg
Acquisition:	donation of Imre Schwaiger

Incense begins with a rectangular pedestal, from which a rod protrudes. The rod widens into another pedestal with a lotus pattern, on which stands a female figure with crossed legs. In his right hand, she holds a tubular container on or into which the mead or incense can be placed.

