

Essential oil holder

India / South Asia Collection

Accession Nr.:	4997
Type:	bronze, lead, gold and silver; object for daily use
Date of production:	19-th c.
Place of production:	India
Materials:	copper
Techniques:	engraved
Dimensions:	height: 10 cm width: 7 cm depth: 9.5 cm diameter: 0.5 cm
Acquisition:	donation of Imre Schwaiger

Volatile oil holder with Nandi bull, attached to a heart-shaped pedestal. On the back of the bull is a saddle with a pattern engraved, on this lotus-shaped small pedestal, on which the container of essential oil fits. Material: copper.

