

Brahma

India / South Asia Collection

Accession Nr.: 62.529.1

Type: sculpture

Date of production: 19th c.

Place of production: India

Materials: marble

Techniques: carved

Dimensions: height: 69 cm width: 48 cm
depth: 20 cm

Acquisition: collection of Ferenc Hopp

Brahma sits in a lotus flower, meditating in the lotus position with his eyes closed. He is portrayed with a crowned head and a long beard, his four faces looking in the four cardinal directions. He is holding a water jug, a book and a rosary. His mount is a swan or a goose, visible on the statue's pedestal in the garden of Hopp Villa.

