

The lower level of a rice maṇḍala

Mongolian Collection

Accession Nr.:	76.49.1
Type:	metalwork; religious/ritual equipment
Date of production:	19th century
Place of production:	Mongolia
Materials:	copper
Techniques:	silvered
Dimensions:	height: 6 cm diameter: 19 cm

The lower level of the rice mandala is a temple in the middle, surrounded by a representation of the Eight Auspicious Symbols, with alternating mountains and waves on the edge.

