

Annapurna

India / South Asia Collection

Accession Nr.:	50.97.1
Type:	relief; statuette
Date of production:	16th-17th c.
Place of production:	India
Materials:	sandstone
Techniques:	silvered
Dimensions:	height: 6.2 cm width: 5 cm
Acquisition:	donation of Imre Schwaiger

The name of goddess Annapurna means "full of food". In her left she holds a bowl, in her right, a spoon pointing to the earth. She is offering food to her devotees from the bowl with the spoon. She is seated in Dhyanasana. Her figure is framed by a horseshoe-shaped glory.

