

Hmong collar / gift kerchief

Southeast Asian Collection

|                      |                                                                                             |
|----------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | 2015.75.1  |
| Type:                | textile; costumes; textile arts                                                             |
| Date of production:  | 1980s                                                                                       |
| Place of production: | Laos, Southeast Asia                                                                        |
| Materials:           | cotton canvas; viscose                                                                      |
| Techniques:          | embroidered; textile application                                                            |
| Dimensions:          | width: 18 cmlength: 25 cm                                                               |

Embroidered with appliqué decoration. The pattern of red and yellow dots in the small white squares symbolises the mustard flower.

