

Lota water vessel

India / South Asia Collection

Accession Nr.:	10
Type:	bronze, lead, gold and silver; object for daily use
Date of production:	17th - 18th century Period of Rajput kingdoms
Place of production:	India
Materials:	brass
Techniques:	chased
Dimensions:	height: 12.5 cm diameter: 5.9 cm
Acquisition:	donation of Imre Schwaiger

Indian copper loṭā water vessel, chased with Śaiva and Vaiṣṇava religious symbols, including Viṣṇu 's ten manifestations (avatāras). Inscribed with "Om Rāma jaya" inscription in Gujarati Mahājana writing. Originating from North India.

