

Vaishnava body stamp

India / South Asia Collection

|                      |                                                                                       |
|----------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | 264  |
| Type:                | stamp                                                                                 |
| Date of production:  | there is no ages                                                                      |
| Place of production: | India                                                                                 |
| Materials:           | bronze                                                                                |
| Techniques:          | soldered                                                                              |
| Dimensions:          | height: 1.8 cmwidth: 3.3 cmdepth: 4.4 cmtömeg: 0.1 kg                     |
| Acquisition:         | collection of Ferenc Hopp                                                             |

Stamp press with openwork pattern soldered from bent metal fibers.

Bronze.

